1999 Cincinnati Hawk 150 CNC Lathe

The machine would be from the company I work for. They are shutting down manufacturing a the plant that I work in. I will be laid off in the new year and I am buying the Hawk 150. They haven't given me a price yet but it sounds like I will be getting that one for about $9,000 Canadian. The Hawk works great for it's age and is very accurate.
