Gaspipe Confessions Of A Mafia

This book is about the life of Anthony 'Gaspipe' Casso, a member of the Lucchese crime family in New York from around the 1960's - 1990's. It tells of how Casso went from being associated to members of organised crime/mafia (Carlo uses the term La Cosa Nostra or LCN) within his family (his father & Godfather were members) to being 'made' and reluctantly (according to Carlo) moving up the ranks to become the underboss (a kind of second in command) of the Lucchese crime family.

Gaspipe: Confessions of a Mafia Boss - SILO.PUB

Anthony Salvatore Casso, nicknamed Gaspipe, is an American mobster and former underboss of the Lucchese crime family. During his career in organized crime, Casso was regarded as a "homicidal maniac" in the Italian-American Mafia as he admitted to the government responsibility for 36 murders but most likely committed many more. Former Lucchese captain and government witness Anthony Accettura once said of Casso, "all he wanted to do is kill, kill, get what you can, even if you didn't earn it." In
