Skeleton key values, while on the rise, are still low enough to allow even a casual collector into the game. While a single key can sell for as much as $1,000, most keys usually sell for less than $10 and many go for $1 or less when sold in bulk, according to Genie Taylor of G. Taylor Antique Keys. But as interest in keys increases, fewer will be on the market, and prices are expected to rise.

Skeleton Keys are bit and barrel keys used to open locks on fine furniture. There are three parts of a skeleton key: the bow, the barrel, and the bit. The diameter of the barrel, and the cut and size of the bit are the most important items when matching a lock. All of our keys are reproductions of functional keys used on locks for antique furniture. If you are ...
