Very thoughtful classic on the events, run up and aftermath of the stock market crash of 1929 and the depression that followed. While a sober subject, it's still an entertaining read as Galbraith is a wry and observant chronicler of history and human nature.

The Great Crash 1929: Galbraith, John Kenneth ...

The Great Crash, 1929 is a book written by John Kenneth Galbraith and published in 1955. It is an economic history of the lead-up to the Wall Street Crash of 1929. The book argues that the 1929 stock market crash was precipitated by rampant speculation in the stock market, that the common denominator of all speculative episodes is the belief of participants that they can become rich without work and that the tendency towards recurrent speculative orgy serves no useful purpose, but rather is deep
