The Little One (Quick Read 2012): 2012 by Lynda La Plante ...

“Little One” left me... well, many things, actually. It left me impressed (for several reasons), touched (Litty is such a sweet little kid), and scrambling for a genre to stick it in. And that’s just the beginning. First off, anyone who’s had siblings will understand the main character (Daniel) remarkably well.

Little One by Nate Philbrick - Goodreads

Love The Little One! Sad to hear that its sister restaurant Cafe Poca Cosa is closing, but am so thankful that The Little One is still around, serving delicious, cozy-feeling Mexican lunch (and especially now with COVID, amazing takeout lunch!). The food feels like it is made with love and the staff is so welcoming.
