"No weapon that is formed against you will succeed.And every tongue that rises against you in judgment you will condemn.This [peace, righteousness, security, and triumph over opposition] is the heritage of the servants of the Lord.And this is their vindication from Me," says the Lord.

Triumph in the Bible (72 instances)
The Triumph of Good over Evil. A BIG PART of our Lent programme of talks this year, about discerning the 'signs of the times', has been concerned with trying to recognise the presence of evil in the world, the personification we traditionally call Satan. For the first time this year we had the talks in the church rather than the hall, to enable us to broadcast and record them through our webcam, but I have no idea how many people took advantage of this.

In religion, ethics, philosophy, and psychology "good and evil" is a very common dichotomy.In cultures with Manichean and Abrahamic religious influence, evil is usually perceived as the dualistic antagonistic opposite of good, in which good should prevail and evil should be defeated. In cultures with Buddhist spiritual influence, both good and evil are perceived as part of an antagonistic ...

Good and evil - Wikipedia
His contention that Paul's is an apocalyptic gospel heralding the ultimate triumph of God over all His creation is well reasoned, argued, and documented. Along with his seminal book, "Paul the Apostle," and his follow up, "Paul's Apocalyptic Gospel," this work provides a great deal of history on the development of the church's (mis-)apprehension of Paul's thought in regard to God's overarching plans for His creation.

It was beyond their imagination, but not beyond God. Could such a dream become reality? Might there be, after all, some deep magic that could turn back time? Better, might there be a power magnanimous enough to bring in a whole new age — the age of resurrection — and triumph over the final enemy, death itself? Seized with Astonishment
